Sub: Self-Financing Colleges of Education – Students belonging to Adi Dravidar and Tribal Community and students converted to Christianity – Not to collect Tuition Fees from them – Further instructions issued - Reg.

- Ref: 1. Govt. Lr.No.5407/K1/2016-1, dated 22.03.2016 from the Deputy Secretary to Govt., Higher Education (K1) Department.
2. G.O.Ms.No. 92, Adi Dravidar and Tribal Welfare (ஆதிந3) Dept., dated 11.09.2012.
3. Govt. Lr.No.13724/ஆதிந3/2014-1, dated 09.02.2015 from the Adi Dravidar and Tribal Welfare Department.

It is informed that in the Government order 2nd cited, the Self-Financing Colleges, offering recognized undergraduate and postgraduate courses shall not collect tuition fees fixed by the 'Fee Fixation Committee' from the students belonging to the Adi Dravidar and Tribal Community and Adi Dravidar students converted to Christianity, since they are exempted from the payment of tuition fee.

As the Government has noticed some deviation in implementing the above orders by the Self-Financing Colleges, the Government has stressed for the strict implementation of the above orders vide Govt. letter 3rd cited.

Now, in the reference 1st cited, Government has once again reiterated the implementation of the above orders strictly.

Hence, the Chairman/Secretary/ Correspondents/Principal of all the Colleges of Education are hereby strictly instructed to adhere to the provisions in the Government Orders 2nd cited and “not to collect tuition fees from the students belonging to Adi Dravidar and Tribal Community and Adi Dravidar students converted to Christianity”, since the authorities of Colleges can reimburse the same from the Directorate of Adi Dravidar and Tribal Department by submitting proposal through proper channel.
